

DESTROYING ANGEL

By Charles M. Larson

BLOOD ATONEMENT?
TERRORISM?
FUNDAMENTALIST REVENGE?

The murder of an entire family in southern Utah takes on a bizarre twist when a cryptic message left on the wall brings Utah's polygamous underground – those who believe and practice "Old Mormonism" – under immediate suspicion. Some practice secretly, many openly, but all of them privately.

Fearing political and domestic terrorism, federal agents are called in. Delving deep into the invisible labyrinth of Utah's polygamous subculture, the investigators begin to see the true scope of the murders: someone is methodically killing the descendent families of the perpetrators of the Mountain Meadows Massacre.

Intense and relevant to contemporary events, this book not only thrills and intrigues, but leaves the audience enriched by the experience.

RELEASING SEPTEMBER 1ST

HISTORICAL FICTION / MYSTERY

1-933990-15-5

$29.95

Hardcover w/ Dust Jacket

6"x9" / 480 pages

ISBN-13: 978-1-933990-15-6

Also available:

Paperback

$16.95

1-933990-18-X

6"x9" / 480 pages

ISBN-13: 978-1-933990-18-7

Distributed by:

Baker & Taylor

Ingram

Zyrus Press
PO Box 17810, Irvine, CA 92623
Tel: (888) 622-7823
Fax: (800) 215-9694
Email: info@zyruspress.com
Web: www.zyruspress.com

CHARLES M. LARSON is an artist, a lifelong student and aficionado of history, and writer who makes his home in Orem, Utah with his (one) wife of thirty-four years and his family. This is his third book, and his first novel. He is the author of By His Own Hand Upon Papyrus: A New Look at the Joseph Smith Papyri (1992) and the award-winning Numismatic Forgery (2004).